Please take notice that the Board of The Hudson River-Black River Regulating District will conduct an Apportionment Grievance Hearing as part of its regular meeting for the transaction of business as shall come before said Board at the Warren County Municipal Center, 1340 State Rt. 9 Lake George, NY 12845 on Tuesday, September 18, 2012 at 10 am. On July 10, 2012 the Board adopted Resolution #12-27-07 fixing as of that date the value, condition and ownership of property upon which the Board based the Apportionment of costs to operate and maintain the Regulating District's Hudson River Area facilities (the Apportionment Date). Persons and/or Public Corporations interested in or aggrieved by the Apportionment may make an appointment to review the apportionment roll and the data upon which it is based by contacting the Regulating District's Hudson River Area Office, 350 Northern Boulevard, Albany, New York 12204 (518) 465-3491. Those interested or aggrieved shall notify the Board in writing at that same office regarding the basis for a requested modification to the Apportionment. Such complaint shall provide an estimate of the time necessary to present documentary and/or oral testimony and must be received no later than close of business on September 11, 2012. The apportionment roll, the data upon which it is based, and the Regulating District's Apportionment Grievance Hearing rules are available on the Regulating District's website at hrbrd.com. The Board's Finance Committee will convene first, followed by the Regular meeting. A video recording of both Meetings shall be accessible from the District's website (www.hrbrd.com) not later than two business days after the close of the meetings.
